CALL FOR PAPERS & POSTERS

INTEGRATION IN LEARNING

DUE DATE: THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 2006
You are invited to submit a proposal for the presentation of a paper or poster. Presentations should have a practical, applied orientation. Paper sessions are 20 minutes long, 15 minutes of presentation and 5 minutes for discussion. Proposals for posters will also be considered and a block of time has been made available for poster review and discussion.

Please submit with form

Dr. Gary Straquadine, Associate Dean of Academic Programs, College of Agriculture, Ag Sci 218, 4800 Old Main Hill, Utah State University, Logan, UT 84322-4800

FAX TO: 435-797-3321

The criteria for selection include:
- Relevancy of the topic
- Evidence that the presentation or poster will be of value
- Clear and concise style
- Practical recommendations

Notice of acceptance should be received by all applicants by July 15, 2006.

Abstract: Title must be clear and concise, not more than 8-12 words. Type abstract on a separate page from the summary, a maximum of 15 lines; 40 characters per line, including spaces.

Summary: A 1,300-1,700 word summary of what you plan to present must be attached for your proposal to be considered. The following headings are recommended for your proposal summary:
- Topic Area (select one of the four indicated in the announcement)
- Presentation Objectives
- Relevance of the Topic to College-Level Agriculture & Forestry Teachers
- Presentation Focus
- Practical Recommendations for College and University Teachers
- Presentation Format
- How Participants will be Involved

VITA: Please include a one-page vitae for each presenter.
